

CPS-IoT Week 2025

May 6 - 9, 2025 Irvine, California

NSF Student Travel Award

The CPS-IoT Week 2025 event is pleased to announce the availability of student travel awards supported by the US National Science Foundation (NSF) travel grant.

Important Dates

Application Deadline: April 10, 2025, at 23:59 AoE
Notification Deadline: April 13, 2025

Eligibility

The travel grant awards funded by NSF are open to US-based students only. To qualify for the NSF travel grant award, a student must be studying in an accredited U.S. institution.

Student recipients will be reimbursed (based on valid receipts) up to $2,000 for their expenses (registration, airfare, and hotel) after the conference.

Note:

- All flights made on an NSF travel grant award must be either on a US-flag carrier or ticketed through a US carrier.
- The reimbursement limit may be adjusted based on the award budget and applicant location.
- The student must have demonstrated financial need through the statements provided in the application and shall receive preference based on these criteria:
 - US citizens or US permanent residents
 - Students who have not attended a CPS-IoT Week in the past
 - Student authors who are presenting papers or having papers with acknowledged grants receive a low priority.

Postdoctoral researchers are not eligible for this scholarship.

All recipients of the student travel grant awards are required to attend the conference. The final award is contingent upon the recipient showing proof of attending the conference.
